RECOVER'-FARRELL

National Association Leader Sees Prosperity After Feds' Fall.

YANKS GO SOUTH TO-DAY

nan of the National Association of Prossional Baseball Clubs, which is the soverning body of the minor leagues. ees in the recently concluded peace a Leagues. But it forced operating ex- suess coming. enses, principally through salary con-market. Major league were afraid to purchase minor mor league contracts. In 1914 the more dropped below 9,000 and last are it again dropped below 6,000. In 1986 two seasons nearly half of the leagues under protection were code to disband.

"Many of these, however, will be lined again this season. I think by the definition of the paths of sound business sense, yet one who again this season. I think by the definition of the paths of sound business sense, yet one who again this season. I think by the definition of the paths of sound business sense, yet one who again this season. I think by the definition of the paths of sound business sense, yet one who again this season. I think the first time the lines of the feature of the feature of the feature of the feature of the feature. The l

"The best of the Federal League

'MINOR LEAGUES TO Fighting Jim Gilmore Tells Just How He Did It

Admits Federal League Was Doomed Before Peace Was Declared.

FORMER OUTLAW LEADER

Mr. Farrell yesterday, "had little effect mannered, quiet voiced chap this quonapon the major leagues save indirectly, dam chieftain of outlaw ball. But any t did not cut appreciably into the at- one who mistakes his apparent modesty endances of the National and American for lack of self-assurance has another

James A. Gilmore is a suave but to a point where it was felt forceful talker; a man of resource as well as of force. He holds the golden key to life, the recipe of success. He were hit hard. They were the principal knows how to cement acquaintance into of baseball history. He met his Waterhandled approximately 12,000 of baseball ambition. Those same men, whom he cajoled and exhorted so reck-lessly to assault the impregnable mone-perience for a fortune. That surely was good players out of employ-an good minor league play-ely more than one-half of employed in 1913 were liv-in profession last season. I that he had done you a great service. I required to operate the same thus asm. He is straight as a die. I minor leagues that prevailed would back him with any part of anything I possess.

That description fits the case. In his players hadn't been greatly been the class A A minor ave decided upon methods of moony. The International most reactionary of all, has a salary limit of $35,000 a club, and a roster limit of a club.

thing I possess.

That description fits the case. In his promotion of the Federal League James bankruptcy, for it de for whatever little frankly. No one more than he respectively the financial losses of the men a gretted the financial losses of the men he interested in his revolutionary plans. His sincerity of purpose is best attested at the Chicago A, talked me blind. The first promotion fits the case. In his bankruptcy, for it deforms the first fits a first plant at the fact frankly. No one more than he respectively.

somewhat topheavy organ- tinued growth in popularity with the Ninth Consecutive Win at Basketball.

Positions. Eastern Di

Right forward

whit Right forward. Hymna miserg Centre Kurmacker ker Left guard. Humentha olev Right guard. Humentha Score Stuyvesant, 43; Eastern District Score at end of first half—Stuyvesant Eastern District, 5. Goals from field— yvesant, Sondag, 7. Specht, 12; Baker stern District, Brodsky, 3; Hyman, 2 umenthal, 2; Zasuly, Goals from foul-ipvesant, Sondag, 5. Eastern District— odsky 8. Shattlutes—Stuyvesant, Slefe placed on their own responsi-Many of the stars of both the Incidentally Stuyvesant's victory gave

"How I fell I cannot figure yet." said

STIRS SPECTATORS

Eastern District Victims in Erasmus and St. Benedict Boys Finish Even at Eastern District Meet.

TWELVE GOALS BY SPECHT ONE LAD WIXS IN PANTS

Benedict representative. Goldman Erasmus and A. Desch of St. Bene-

STUYVESANT NAILS | MEDLEY DEAD HEAT | ENGLISHMEN STIRRED BY | SPECTATORS FEW: VICTORIES OF LON MYERS

Noted Runner Really Set Fashion for Athletic Invasions as Far Back as 1881-Merrill, a Boston Walker, With Him on First Trip.

By E. C. CARTER.

can athletics were revived at the dinher to Ernie Hjertberg, the Swedish it feat of Myers in capturing an Englis

The date of the first appea ance of the Americans was June 25, 1881, when both astonished a critical crowd at the London A. C. Stamford walk in 14:35 2-5. A week later Myers won a half mile in 1:56 and Merrill a three mile walk in 22 minutes 4-5 sec-it gave the Englishmen to see their best athletes beaten by men from a country where athletic sports had been indulged mond County; George Bell, Manor Field; E. O'Bri. as greatly admired by the Brummagems, tion games. The Paterson Cricket Club. Merrill was not so fortunate. The association, made aplication for memnish walkers were just as faulty in bership and was readmitted by unaniing on the track. The mob became more and more incensed as man after man was taken off, and when the Yankee was tion of Meek, because the others did not Memories of the early days of Amer-an athletics were revived at the dinbefore he departed for Sweden shared in the gate money. Myers wiped out part of this in the following year on Thursday. Around the table were when he went over again and won both men who had been connected with track the quarter and half mile English chamber of thirty-five years as pionships. I cannot remember if he had the Twenty-second Re think not. That was the last year of was not as success Myers as an amateur, for after his re-were plenty of char America he was disqualified!

The stands of th

1887. W. Byrd Page astonishing the Britishers with his high jumping and showed that he is rapidly winning the championship at 6 feet. to form by winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the champions and the showed that he is rapidly winning the local control of the showed that he is rapidly winning the champions and the showed that he is rapidly winning the champions and the showed that he is rapidly winning the champions at the showed that he is rapidly winning the champions and the showed that he is rapidly winning the showed that he is rapidly with the showed the showed that he is rapidly with the sho running titles. The following year the 220 yard champion, was o squads which crossed the water were the race was not run in the largest sent up to that time to bat-colored runner got caught team over in 1890 which captured laurels | Flynn in France as well as England, but after that only spasmodic trips were made by individuals until the London A. C.

CRESCENT A. C. OUT OF CHAMPIONSHIP CRICKET

Announcement Made at Annual Meeting of N. Y. and N. J. Association.

annual meeting of the New York and School took fit New Jersey Cricket Association at the relay closed to Hermitage yesterday

CHAMPIONS FEWER

Too Many Rival Attractions Affect Interest in Brony Church House Games